Annual CAUTHE Bill Faulkner Workshop For PhD scholars and Early Career Researchers

All PhD Scholars and Early Career Researchers are invited to attend the annual CAUTHE Bill Faulkner Workshop held immediately prior to the CAUTHE Conference, on Tuesday February 8, 2011.

The workshop is designed for current PhD scholars and Early Career Researchers (completed a PhD within the past 5 years).

The workshop will be held at the University of South Australia CAUTHE conference venue in Adelaide.

Workshop Programme

You will have the opportunity to take part in an innovative, engaging and useful program tailored for all PhD and ECR scholars.

As always, a workshop highlight will be the opportunity to personally discuss your research with internationally renowned academics.

More details on the program will be progressively released.

Workshop Cost

Students and ECRs registered to attend the 2011 CAUTHE conference Discount fee: $50

Not attending the CAUTHE conference
Standard fee: $100

Cost includes food and refreshments for the day, speakers and materials.

Workshop Testimonials

The workshop provides an opportunity to boost your skills, knowledge and networks. Previous attendees have gained enormously from the workshops. Selected comments from the 2010 workshop (PhDs only) in Hobart include:

“The activity based exercises were fun and interesting. The metaphors were very suited to the topic and it was good to work with other students.”

“The fact that it is very different than other usual workshops. Much more engaging.”

“The small group discussions were really useful. Also Hugh Kearns' activity was insightful and provided the opportunity to get to know the other students, their topics, their progress and their challenges.”

“Collegiate environment with fellow students.”
